

Come Join us April 12th, Saturday, for the National Fair Tax Freedom Rally
Riverfront Park, Nashville TN - 101 First Ave. N @ Broadway

There are 15 states involved in converging for what Fair Tax is saying
"WILL BE THE BIGGEST FAIR TAX RALLY TO DATE!"

ROAD TRIP

And to add a little excitement for the day, all Georgians will be gathering at the Tennessee Welcome Center on I-75 North, just over the GA/TN line. We will leave promptly at 9:00 A.M. (our time) and head for Nashville to get there between 10:30 A.M. and 11:00 A.M. Central time.

Speakers for this event include Dr. Deborah Honeycutt (running for Congress in GA-13 Congressional District, Tom Wright-past Fair Tax director, and Dr. Alan Keyes who will be making a national political impact announcement at the rally. Cong. John Linder and Neal oortz have been invited as well with nothing firm at this time.

To get details on this event, please go to the rally website:

HTTP://WWW.NATIONALFREEDOMRALLY.COM

If you can make it, be prepared for the start of something Fair Taxers have been waiting to see for a long time. If there is no way you can make it, but want to do your part and help out the volunteers, please make a donation at the rally website shown above. You'll be helping all of us with every dollar you can spare! If you want to join with the local Georgia Fair Tax group to help us with future events, please go to:

<http://www.fairtax.meetup.com/73>