

Veggie Hikers Hall of Fame

Our highlight on October is a trip to Half Dome, the hike of the year. Check out our photo album over <http://www.meetup.com/la-veggie-hikers/photos/730293/>

As summer is winding down and we are entering winter/fall season, our activities are also wandering down a little. Winter in southern California actually is a great time to hike, no more heat & sweat and view are way better when there is no smog...

We still have packed events on Oct. However, we observed a much smaller pact in our events and small setting is good to acquaint new and old Veggie Hikers to catch up good old time.

Holiday season is really on the corner and as everyone is busy with their private lives, we Veggie Hikers probably will do exact the same thing spending more time with families, friends and colleagues rather than hitting on the trail... which is great to recoup energy after the intense hiking activities we had this summer :-P

Highlights on October:

Out of our surprise, Heeral and Tapan, the great AnSo couple, won the first place over October Gold! Speedy Woof! tried his final push but speedy out of the list. He asked GU for his Christmas so he can gain back some speedy juice :-). One the other hand, Master Ballerina has danced his way back. Congratulations to Tapan, Jang, Gabi, Julie, Anand, Robb, and Shelly for becoming our new Assistant Organizers. We love to attend your events soon.

For the new members, we have Casey, L. and Kelsey for this month. Welcome! Ludic has been on the board for the send time, Yay :D

Highlights on Veggie Hikers Events

Griffith Park remains the most favor place for Veggie Hikers. On the other hand, Echo Mountain (aka Inspiration Point), although it is a popular hike among locals, it is the least favor place for the Veggie Hikers. It must be the weather!!!!
