Thursday Nov 3rd
at 7 pm

Dr. Michael Givel, OU Department of Political Science will discuss

“Gross National Happiness in Bhutan”

In 1972, the 4th King of Bhutan declared that Gross National Happiness is more important than Gross Domestic Product. This talk will investigate the historical policy, religious underpinnings, and explanations of GNH in Bhutan. The discussion will also explore how in Bhutan happiness is implemented and currently measured.

You are invited to attend this program which is free, open to the public, and sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Coffee and snacks will be provided.
