by Chuck Baldwin

As we approach Independence Day, it behooves us to recall the principles of America's founding, especially in light of the ongoing attempt by today's political and commercial leaders to merge the United States into a hemispheric government. In fact, the clarion call for independence is just as fundamental, just as revolutionary as it was 233 years ago.

Regarding the signing of the Declaration of Independence, John Adams said, "[Independence Day] will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the Day of Deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore."

Adams went on to say, "You will think me transported with enthusiasm, but I am not. I am well aware of the toil and blood and treasure that it will cost us to maintain this Declaration, and support and defend these States. Yet through all the gloom I can see the rays of ravishing light and glory; I can see that the end is more than worth all the means, that posterity will triumph in that day's transaction, even though we should rue it, which I trust in God we shall not."

Indeed, the signers of America's Declaration of Independence endured the sacrifice of both toil and blood. Pertaining to the lives of the signers, David Limbaugh writes, "Of those 56 who signed the Declaration of Independence, nine died of wounds or hardships during the war. Five were captured and imprisoned, in each case with brutal treatment. Several lost wives, sons or entire families. One lost his thirteen children. Two wives were brutally treated. All were at one time or another the victims of manhunts and driven from their homes. Twelve signers had their homes completely burned. Seventeen lost everything they owned."

Yes, America's Declaration of Independence, which is our nation's birth certificate, was purchased at a very high price. Rightly did its primary author, Thomas Jefferson, invoke God's name no less than four times in the Declaration. Without God, our struggle for independence and freedom would surely have failed.

Jefferson, along with the vast majority of America's founders, knew that freedom was, first, the gift of God, not the accomplishment of men. He further understood that man's law must be subordinate to the natural laws of God.

Therefore, with an appeal to Heaven for the "rectitude of [their] intentions," America's Founding Fathers courageously forged a document that would put their own lives at risk, but would also change the course of history.

The question now is, "How long can we maintain our nation's independence?" The forces of global government seem to dominate both major parties in Washington, D.C., most corporate boardrooms, and most newsrooms.

In fact, hemispheric or regional government never had more powerful and committed allies than former Presidents George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush and now President Barack Obama. Mark my words: if and when America loses its independence, it will have been these Presidents that led the way in making it happen.

If the United States is going to maintain its independence and freedom much beyond the year 2010, it will only be because millions of freedom-loving Americans (and the governments of the States in which they reside) are willing to fight for it.

Both John Adams and Thomas Jefferson died on July 4, 1826. Daniel Webster gave the eulogy for both men on August 2 of that year. Included in his remarks on that notable day were these words: "It [the Declaration of Independence] is my living sentiment, and by the blessing of God, it shall be my dying sentiment. Independence now, and independence forever."

To Webster's words, I say a hearty AMEN! I promise no loyalty to the North American Union, the United Nations, or any other brand of global government. When the day comes that I am required to submit to any form of global authority, I will be an outlaw. There is no freedom without independence, and there is no independence without eternal vigilance. To my dying breath I will say with Daniel Webster, "Independence now, and independence forever!"

Included in this letter are hand-outs you can copy and get out to people who need educated about what is happening to our beloved country. If you can not be bothered to help save this country of ours, then I dare say you do not deserve it. Our present and past administrations have worked very hard to destroy her, but with the patriot move-ment banding together with tea parties, we may just have something going that will not be stopped. The big problem with the tea parties is, that we must find a few issues to work on that will make a huge difference, such as supporting a great man like Pastor Chuck Baldwin for president, He ran in the last election but got very little press time. With the tea parties, if we band together to help patriots who will step forward to the plate and run for office, we can do what has to be done. The first thing we have to do is help the Ohio Election Justice Campaign to get their lawsuit heard in Ohio, then hopefully other states will follow. Check out their website to see how you can help, even if it is with a small/large donation, that helps greatly! Www.electiondefencealliance.org/OEJC We must have fraud free elections before we can even begin to win this game we are in. Believe me when I say the fraud is so huge that it is unbelievable. But if we can get a few of the people involved in Ohio with the fraud fired or better yet put in prison for their part in the 2004 election, things would start changing for the better. Join the New Frontier Coalition and offer your help. Believe me when I say, Obama is working overtime selling this country out, with the help of Congress, big business, bankers, and all of the corruption changing hands to get the next stimulus money that will be coming up next. Retired Navy Officer Charges President Obama With Treason by Pat Shannan

In a federal complaint totally ignored by the mainstream media for more than three months, retired Navy Lt. Cmdr. Walter F. Fitzpatrick III has formally charged Barack Hussein Obama with the high crime of treason for his illegal ascension to the office of president without lawful qualifications to hold the office.

The federal complaint was filed on March 17, 2009 with U.S. Attorney James R. Dedrick in the Eastern District of Tennessee in Knoxville, after Obama failed to respond to the multiple suits challenging his natural birth status. Dedrick immediately reported Fitzpatrick to Washington as a threat to the president.

Fitzpatrick's criminal complaint*says, in part, "Your criminal ascension manifests a clear and present danger. You fundamentally changed our form of government. The Constitution no longer works. Confident holding your silent agreement and admission, I identify you as a foreign born domestic enemy. My sworn duty, Mr. Obama, is to stand against what you stand for. You are not my president. You are not my commander-in-chief.

You, [Mr. Obama] have broken in and entered the White House by force of contrivance, concealment, conceit, dissembling and deceit. Posing as an impostor president and commander-in-chief, you have stripped civilian command and control over the military establishment. Known military criminal actors-command racketeers-are now free in the exercise of military government intent upon destruction of American's constitutional government."

Over 400,000 American citizens have signed a national petition demanding that Barack Obams keep his campaign promise to operate a "transparent" government, beginning with his own history.

Instead, Obama has spent a million in legal fees to block his true identity from becoming public. His entire past, from birth in Africa to adoption in Indonesia, to his travel on an Indonesian passport, his college records, including how such an "average" individual was able to afford such an expensive Ivy League education, and how he came to be friends with so many anti-American criminals during that period, remains a secret, guarded far more carefully than actual matters of national security.

Barck entered college at Occidental in California in the fall of 1979 and remained at Occidental until the spring of 1981, but certainly would have entered Occidental under the name Barry Soetoro, the name used since his adoption in Indonesia.

Occidental has stated that "Neither Obams's image nor name appear in any Occidental yearbooks or weekly student newspaper for the years he attended." This means that there is no hard public evidence that proves that Barack Obama ever attended Occidental College. In her 1980 divorce, his mother identified him as Barry Soetoro, a legal citizen of Indonesia, who was still dependent on both parties for his continuing education. This is further proof of his fraudulent occupancy of the White House, because it connotes Indonesian citizenship, the country from which he also help a passport.

Internet writer J.B. Williams says, "The man had a blank resume, a laundry list of evil associates, a past more secret than your average CIA agent, nothing on his resume that screams 'leader' of anything, and after an uneventful freshman year as a U.S. Senator, managed to become president of the United States."

By leveling these charges, Fitzpatrick may have placed his own head on the chopping block, although this seems doubtful now. Even though retired, he is subject to recall and has pointed out on his website how at least two other Navy men in recent years were recalled to duty for the specific reason of bringing them to trial. One is languishing in Leavenworth Federal Prison.

Potentially, Fitzpatrick has opened himself up to recall, which could then be closely followed by a charge of mutiny, should he fail to obey an order from his alleged commander-in-chief. However, this is unlikely because the Obama records would have to be made public in order to convict him. All evidence seems to now reflect that such an eventuality could only serve to convict Obama.

Fitzpatrick reports that two days after he filed charges, government agents showed up on his doorstep: "The two Secret Service agents, escorted by two local police officers, arrived at eight minutes before 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It's been two months. [With his inaction] Mr. Obama admits his treason."

My Dear Friends In Freedom And In The Defense Of Liberty: By Paul Revere in Arizona

It goes without saying that the Train that we find ourselves on is heading for the wreck of the century. The Obamessiah is pushing the envelope, so much so, that we who remember more sane times, can easily get pass the window dressing and recognize the undoing of our Rule of Law and the undermining of our Constitution. Indeed, we remain the last best hope of this nationcitizens that will never relinquish the blessings that have been bestowed upon as a free and liberated society.

As we continued to be hammered by the Communist Left and the Progressive Socialists and the Marxist ideologues....all of whom are anti-America, we can't help but notice that moderate and liberal-progressive Republicans are joining the very individuals and causes that are aimed at achieving the very same kind of repressive government that they claim is offensive. But wait. Aren't they siding with the people of Iran, while at the same time condemning the people of Honduras? Aren't they the author's of memorandums that seek to label our veterans and citizens as "right wing extremists and domestic terrorists" simply because our belief in the original text of the Constitution is indeed correct?

We have seen the destruction of our national core values run off the road by the heathens of democracy and have witnessed their support growing among spineless politicians and kool aid drinking Americans whose purpose is to gain political favor and control the national resources of our Republic, not for the purpose of making our Republic stronger...but rather to move this once bright star into the shadows of other failed nations. REPUBLICANS have come to embrace this ideology which has been, is and remains foreign to our established laws, values and traditions. Where we have failed or become impotent....those who oppose the tenants given us by our founders, have gained friends and ground. With the help of 8 RINO'S, the Cap and Trade Legislation won. Had these RINO'S remained faithful to the Constitution....it would have failed by 1 vote. This is not a victory for the Democrats....it is a defeat for our Republic and a tremendous loss in faith for the Republican Party which could not prevent the defections of its own members.

And so it goes. The argument that Republicans still value our conservative principles is a lie. When that Party held a majority in the Congress and then obtained legislative control of the Congress and the White House for 12 years, the leadership and the membership failed to advance the cause of conservative Americans and were outflanked and out lobbied by the opposition party. In 12 years....illegal immigration grew exponentially as did the costs of health care and education and incarcerations, etc., all at the expense of the tax payers of America. Of course, there remains other serious issues that clear show how and where the RINO'S failed and caved into the liberal rants of racism, etc., but I need not point out all of the flaws in the failed republican plan.

Suffice it to say, we now live in a radically different nation under conditions that will continue to be shaped by very different set of rules. If there has been a darker 6 months in our national history....one be hard to find it. The Obamessiah and his cohorts and minions move swiftly forward to perpetuate the chaos and the confusion which has come to obscure the Constitution and our Rule of Law. They can do no wrong so long as what they do remains unchallenged by the American people. And of course, the American people can do very little or anything all, so long as our elected representatives continue to openly support and consort with those who use our tax dollars to destroy our Republic.

It is often said that the government has deep pockets and that it creates evidence and issues to support its claims. What do we have, but a disorganized group of Patriots struggling to expose the guilty for the evil and wrong doing that they find themselves engaged in? Our public discourse is branded as the rantings of right wing extremists. We are openly accused of being gun lover's who cling to their Bible's. We are subjected to public abuse and because we believe strongly in God, Duty, Honor and Countrywe are labeledDOMESTIC TERRORISTS. When will we get the message? When will we admit that we have been had by that those who oppose freedom and liberty, and that they are the very same people that will, when given the word....gleefully incarcerate us?

When I hear the messages of the GOP and the pleadings of elected Republican officials or party members asking for donations and support for the "conservative" cause, then I know that obfuscation is a real descrip-tion of their platform and their ideology. Where we once believed that we had hope and a fighting chance, it is now clear, and has been since 1994, that these ideals were nothing more than cheap window dressing on a house of cards. In 12 years, the GOP morphed into a wretched "promise maker", and since 2004, became just like those who kiss the ass of the Obamessiah. You don't see the GOP standing on the steps of the Capitol today as they did in 1994, in opposition to the ideas of the socialists, but you will find them cowering in the cloak rooms of the House and Senate, fearful of public scrutiny for the ways in which they abandoned the American People.

So I ask again....Who is Driving the Train? Is it American Patriots....or is it be the Great Pretenders?
God bless America - PAUL REVERE IN ARIZONA

WE LET THE COUNTRY GO

By Nancy Levant

NewsWithViews.com

Have you read the 10 planks of Communism lately? How about the 45 current Communist Goals? Have you wondered about the cast of characters occupying the stage of Washington, D.C., and specifically whose agenda is pouring over the former 50 United States of former America and their 50 former sovereign state constitutions? I laugh as I write because no one . . . not even the die-hard Democrats or Republicans . . . can lie snug in their demagoguery, their moral superiority, their religious politics, their lies, or their think tanked computer model reports and believe even themselves anymore. D.C. is more than the Columbian District, ladies and gentlemen. D.C. is everywhere, and your individual states are, let us say, satellite franchises of the United Soviet of America.

Are you still watching your sit-coms and reality shows? Did your idols win, and is your cable TV still operational even though you have no job and cannot afford to drive, license, or insure your automobile? How are you living on your part-time/no benefit incomes? Well, as long as you have cable TV and Internet, life is perfectly entertained . . . though you may have lost your home . . . as well.

Since we let the country go, and since we let "others" walk off with every single one of our legal rights and our private property and our privacy and our legitimate votes and our educations and our health and medical care and our quality food supply and our manufacturing base and our jobs and our banks and our automobile industry and our insurance industry and our opinions, etc., etc., SINCE WE LET THE COUNTRY GO, what shall we talk about?

Shall we talk about Obama? Marx and Engels? Your equitable Community? How about Joe Stalin? Actually, we should be taking Chinese language classes because we need to be talking about China . . . quickly . . . because it is guaranteed that China is talking about us as we speak. However, our TV sets interfere as they have for six decades. Trust me . . . China speaks to and about us as we speak . . .

As a whistle blower, it is hard to continue to research, as so many of us do, only to realize that half the American public has been "retrained" into the new social system, and the other half doesn't want to know or talk about it or hear about it or function minus part-time/no bennies job + cable, Internet, a few beers, energy drinks, joints, and a corporate burger or two. And one must ask . . . for the ones who do know, have studied, made the effort to understand - for this few and select bunch of heart broken people - what did you do with the information? Did you work for a decade or two to spread the news? Did you keep working, keep digging, and keep teaching the American morons that the greatest of lights was dying at the hands of deceitful and greed-stricken control freaks? What happened, people, to you . . . you who knew? Perhaps it is a sick and sad joke that so few saw so clearly the writing on the wall. As one whistle blower, I know there are many who wonder what the future holds. There are many who wonder what more we could have done?

The new-world future draws near, and it is going to be a squeeze - a real sque-eze. We feel it now, and it is noose-like from every direction. For the ones who can see the patterns and understand the "community stakeholder" bureaucracies that have been raised to crush and steal, we understand the powers behind the noose. For those who hide from this reality with their down-turned eyes and ignorance that scream an unwillingness to even think, we shake our heads in wonderment. You know . . . all of you know . . . that freedom is gone - your freedom is gone - as is mine - because we let the constitutional country be overtaken by communist usurpers. Today, America is nothing but a word and freedom is nonexistent.

We whistle blowers will continue our road because we don't know how to get off the course. It was freedom we wanted - yours and mine - my opinion back to back with your opinion - but your flashy electees wanted something else, which history knows so bitterly well. But for the devotees of freedom - meaning freedom for every-one - onward, somehow, we will go.

Letter to the Editor: July 4th. 2009 ~God Bless America

Charlotte Iserbyt is an authority on education, and from info I have learned from her and others, I realize why in Ohio, Governor Strickland, a democrat has come up with his decision to change the way our children are taught in schools is a one world agenda, and hopefully will be stopped if you call and tell your legislator to vote no on Strickland's budget which includes this practice.

[From Charlotte Thomson Iserbyt

Former Senior Policy Adviser

U.S. Department of Education

Please check out her website at: <http://www.deliberatedumbingdown.com/>

<http://www.americandeception.com/>

P.S. Many years ago I had in my possession a document (minutes of a meeting of high-up communists) which discussed how to get Americans to accept world government. The consensus was the only way to do so was to choose an issue both conservatives and liberals will accept as important. The choice was "the environment." Very good decision on their part. I have lost few documents in the past thirty years and that one was most unfortunately one of them. Charlotte Iserbyt]

This falls in line with legislation passed through the House, H.R. 2454 The "Cap and Trade" bill. Please call your Senator and tell them they must vote no on this horrible legislation. They will be back in their office on July 6th. Also tell them to vote No on the Socialized Health Care Bill. No on S-909 Thought Crime bill. Below is some of the Obama administration plan to destroy American with H.R. 2454, Climate Bill, "Cap and Trade."

- Destroys 1-3 million U.S. jobs each year.
- Will raise gasoline prices by 74%
- Will raise natural gas prices by 55%
- Will raise an average family's energy bill by $1600.00 annually
- Will increase the federal debt by 26%, which is $29,150.00 per person

State legislators must understand this bill stomps on states and individual rights. If passed, before you can sell your home, the federal government will inspect your home for green adaptable window, doors, insulation, etc. everything must be brought up to their green codes before you can sell. Everyone must know anything the government puts their hands into, gets fouled up!

To Heath Grissinger, I do not have to be a fear mongerer, the Republicans and Democrats do a great job of it. Every time they do not follow their oath of office, they are breaking the law, which makes those bills "Null and Void". Read or watch congress in action, you will see they are advancing the United States into a communist/socialist regime at a rapid rate. I will remind you of your duty as a teacher is not to teach voluntarism, but to teach the three R's. Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic. If that was indeed taught, the children might test up with European Countries, and not falling behind the whole world. We, as parents can teach our children, morals, and indeed to volunteer when needed, not the schools. I also feel that the school boards and teachers should be screening school books and not allow profanity be allowed in their teaching material as Brian Boss stated in his letter to the editor. I also understand there is more in history books about Marilyn Monroe than about our Constitution and Lincoln. That is the travesty here. [Schools could learn a lot from Home Schoolers. Home schooled children test higher than school children because they are being taught real history, and the three R's.]
