

ECONOMIC STIMULUS SUMMIT: HOW TO ACCESS FUNDING IN THE AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT.
SPONSORED BY THE HONORABLE CONGRESSWOMAN
CORRINE BROWN AND JACKSONVILLE MAYOR JOHN PEYTON

March 10th, 2009

Dear Friend:

On Monday, March 23rd, we will be hosting a Summit to explain and provide an overview of a subject of utmost importance: competitive grant funding in The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, which was signed into law by President Barak Obama on February 17th. The event will be held in conjunction with Florida Community College at Jacksonville at their Technology Center (located at: 401 West State Street, Jacksonville, FL 32202, on the corner of State and Broad Streets), from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., and will be directed towards area non profit organizations and private businesses, school board members, college and university administrators, law enforcement agency heads, as well as city and county governments. During the Summit, participants will be briefed by representatives from various federal agency officials, including the Department of Health and Human Services, Transportation, Education, Energy, Small Business, and Housing and Urban Development, who will assist you in how to access funding in the law.

For more information or to RSVP, please contact Congresswoman Brown's Jacksonville district office, at (904) 354-1652. Space is limited. Please RSVP early to reserve a seat. We look forward to seeing you there.
