

THE PAUL PORTER SHOW

WEEK DAYS 3 - 5 p.m.

ON ST. AUGUSTINE'S #1 STATION AM 1240 WFOY

Entertaining and enlightening talk radio with a non-partisan, call-in format that teaches the spiritual principles as embodied in the Constitution to critique current attitudes as evidenced by the behavior of various institutions – religious, political, corporate, legal, government and media.

Paul Porter is a veteran radio personality, entrepreneur, political operative, and land developer. He brings his diverse business and government experience to bear as a talk show host on WFOY AM 1240 St. Augustine, weekdays, 3 – 5 p.m. Before joining WFOY, Paul's radio experience included a prior stint at WFOY; KRLA in Los Angeles; and WZNZ and WBOB in Jacksonville.

Mr. Porter's business experience spans 30 years. He founded and/or built companies delivering a broad range of products and services, including: Naturize BioSciences, Clean Shower, an original Blockbuster Video franchise, and a substantial alternative energy development, consulting and strategic planning firm wherein his clients included the Executive Office of the President of the U.S., the Department of Energy, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, Los Alamos National Laboratory, the City of Houston, the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey, Grumman Aerospace, Vought Aircraft and Burroughs. Additionally, as a developer and contractor, Mr. Porter has been a Florida state-certified General and Underground Contractor.

Porter has served three Presidents and two governors in various capacities including: conceptualizing the Communities in Schools Program; officially representing the President of the United States in a State Visit to Guinea, Africa; serving as an Advisory Board member for the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts; acting as Assistant Treasurer for two different Presidential Inaugural Committees, coordinating the provision of recreation areas to the children of Hurricane Katrina evacuees; writing the Massachusetts Lighting Code; and establishing the methodologies and rates for electricity purchased by utilities from small power producers.

Mr. Porter has given tirelessly to various not-for-profit organizations including the Otis Smith Foundation's "Adopt-A-Kid Program", the First Coast Venture Capital Group, the United Way of Jacksonville, Christ Episcopal Church, Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida, and the National Interest Forum. He has received marketing awards from the American Marketing Association (EFFIES for Clean Shower) and Advertising Age (Top 100 Marketers). He is a graduate of Leadership Jacksonville and served as Chairman and Treasurer of the Massachusetts Community Development Finance Corporation.

Paul has two lovely daughters, Elia (16) and Stephanie (13) who reside in Ponte Vedra Beach. Raised in St. Pete Beach, Florida, Mr. Porter earned a BA in Management Science from Duke University and an MBA from Harvard. At Duke, Paul played freshmen basketball and was an assistant basketball coach on the Duke men's staff for the 1973 – 1974 season.
