

Republican Liberty Caucus

RLC Meeting - Tuesday, February 1st 2011

Defining Victory for the RLC

The RLC is involved in a myriad of local, state and national battles to advance the cause of liberty. We focus on education, candidate campaigns, reform within the Republican Party, and promoting or stopping legislation. Although all have their merits, the RLC is looking to re-assess the Goals of our Caucus and determine more specifically what the Northeast Florida membership wants to accomplish in 2011 and beyond.

Join us Tuesday, February 1st for an interactive panel discussion where the Caucus will discuss, debate and define Victory for our organization. Panelists will include Jaime Davis of the 10th Amendment Center, Vic Wilhelm, President of Concerned Taxpayers of Duval County, Mike Ryan, longtime RLCer and liberty activist and Matt Nye, the newly elected State Chairman of the RLCFL. Each will take a few minutes to pitch their idea before opening up the floor for questions, motions and votes. Come let your voice be heard and have your ideas shape the future of the RLC of Northeast Florida.

What is the RLC?

We are a coalition of traditional conservatives and liberty-minded Republicans working within the Republican Party to promote individual liberty, free enterprise less government and state and national sovereignty. We advocate for strict adherence to the United States Constitution in accordance with the original intentions of its framers.

One thing that differentiates us from most conventional Republican Clubs – is that we are not afraid to hold our elected officials accountable and to point the finger at our own party in an effort to keep those who represent us, principle-oriented and value-driven. Essentially we are a Caucus that believes in principle before party – always.
