

Republican Liberty Caucus

Next Meeting - Tuesday, October 5th 2010

Rebecca O'Dell

Topic: The Constitution

The RLC of Northeast Florida believes that a fundamental understanding of the Constitution is critical to properly assessing candidates and elected officials. As we approach the pivotal November 2010 election we would like voters to refocus on how our system of checks and balances is supposed to work per The U.S. Constitution. With this goal in mind, the RLC is very pleased to welcome back Rebecca O'Dell as our featured speaker this month. Rebecca delivers a dynamic lesson in American history & civics. Join us for a very important presentation on our current constitutional crises and what needs to be done to regain control of our government.

What is the RLC?

We are a coalition of traditional conservatives and liberty-minded Republicans working within the Republican Party to promote individual liberty, free enterprise less government and state and national sovereignty. We advocate for strict adherence to the United States Constitution in accordance with the original intentions of its framers.

One thing that differentiates us from most conventional Republican Clubs – is that we are not afraid to hold our elected officials accountable and to point the finger at our own party in an effort to keep those who represent us, principle-oriented and value-driven. Essentially we are a Caucus that believes in principle before party – always.
