

Rugs restored by master craftsman Hayko are on display in galleries and auction houses throughout the world, yet you cannot see his work. Top-quality restoration is invisible.

Hayko Oltaci's interest in the art of restoration of rugs and carpets started at age 16. He perfected his craft in Europe before opening his own company in New York City. Hayko and his skilled restorers serve a discerning private clientele as well as museums & galleries. Some of his clients even fly their carpets from abroad.

Visit Hayko atelier, examine his restorations, and see his private collection of unique tribal and antique rugs as well as kilims, which can be purchased.

Enjoy Hayko's hospitality, just don't spill the coffee.
