

LAND OF LIBERTY

The Founders and the Constitution

Hudson Library & Historical Society

96 Library Street, Hudson, OH 44236

Saturday, February 25, 2012 2:00 - 4:30 pm

Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence and third president of the United States, perhaps said it best: "The government that governs least governs best." The Founders of the United States were committed not only to the concept of liberty, but to its reality in the government of their new republic.

Dr. Philip Weeks, Distinguished Teaching Award Recipient and Professor of History (retired) Kent State, will present "Liberty, the Founders, and the Constitution" at Hudson Library & Historical Society on Saturday, February, from 2:00 pm - 4:30 pm. Weeks is the co-author of Land of Liberty: A United States History, in addition to a number of other books. This presentation is open to all members of the general public, including representatives from the press.
