What is Laid-Off Camp?

Pathways to Success (aka LaidOffCamp Richmond) is an “un-conference” for unemployed, non-traditionally employed (including freelancers, entrepreneurs and startups), employees and employers in the Richmond area who want to share ideas and learn from each other.

Losing your job is a unique opportunity to gain new perspective and reinvent your career. By attending Pathways to Success Richmond, visitors will be able to network, promote marketable skills and exchange resources and expertise with others

Attendee/Sponsor-Driven Sessions Will Include:

- Using Twitter, LinkedIn & Facebook as Lead Generation Devices
- Expanding Your Professional Network
- Living on an Extreme Budget
- Health Care and Financial Options
- Building Your Personal Brand
- Freelance Consulting 101
- Starting Your Own Business and more!

Companies onsite will provide resources to attendees. Attendees will enjoy interacting with professionals from a breadth of industries (insurance, financing, healthcare, wellness, organization etc.). Various companies will also be onsite recruiting at this event, amongst numerous savvy job seekers.

This event exists to provide an environment for community members to help steer each other in the right direction during these trying times — whether that direction is looking for a new job, starting a company, finding freelance work or becoming an independent consultant.
