

The Rialto Center for the Arts, the Mexican Consulate, and the Instituto de Mexico present

DIA DE MUERTOS

DAY OF THE DEAD

Experience traditional Mexican culture, music and food during this beloved Holiday.

Day of the Dead Concert and Celebration at the Rialto!

Saturday, October 31st, celebrate Halloween in an alternative way. Join Los Cenzontles (The Mockingbirds) as they weave traditional Latino rhythms with contemporary sounds of electric bass and percussion. Los Cenzontles infuses their powerful contemporary sound with the soul of Mexico's rural roots music.

The Rialto will be transformed the entire day by the traditions of Day of the Dead, including authentic altars, figurines and folk art representing historic Mexican culture.

Tickets: 2 for 1 (1/2 price for single) — mention this flyer!
Call 404-413-9TIX (9849). Parking is free!

The Celebration Continues...

Sunday, November 1st from 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m., the Instituto de Mexico hosts local and national artists at the Atlanta History Center. Enjoy the food, vendors, music and beautiful altars exhibit that serve as a way for families to remember their deceased loved ones during Dia de Muertos.

Atlanta History Center, 130 West Pace Ferry Road, Atlanta.

Closing Celebration at the Rialto!

The Dia de Muertos celebration closes with a special free community event held during the First Thursday Downtown Artwalk, November 5th. Attendees of the Rialto will learn more about the traditional celebration by decorating figurines, viewing the exhibition of folk art and tasting traditional Dia de Muertos food.

Rialto Center, 80 Forsyth Street NW, Atlanta, 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

