

No “But”s – There’s Always the Weekend

September 27, 2010

Dear Puget Sound Conservatives,

Just like a past generation’s repeated chant of “Remember the Alamo!” the repeated chant I’m telling fellow conservatives in 2010 is “NO REGRETS!” You don’t want to have any regrets you didn’t do all you could to help elect conservative candidates locally and nationally, so that we can turn around our country’s direction before it’s too late. But if you’re like me, you are working 40+ hours a week, making a living for your family, and you don’t have the time Monday through Friday to get actively involved.

Ah-ha! But there’s always the weekend!

Following are some of the ways members of the Puget Sound Conservative Underground can get involved on Saturdays and Sundays in October. You can make phone calls to potential voters from a Republican “Victory Center” in various Puget Sound locations. You can help candidates doorbell voters or simply drop off literature at front doors. You can wave campaign signs or post campaign signs. You can even get together with fellow-conservatives to get yourself educated and motivated by viewing documentary videos. In other words, there is a way all of us PSCU members can be activists in October, even on a weekend, so that none of us have to have any regrets we didn’t do all we could.

Here are a sampling some of the events that are happening on Saturdays and Sundays in October in the Puget Sound area. Please see if you can attend and/or help at one or more of them.

Saturday phone calling for U.S. Congressional Candidates Dino Rossi, James Watkins, and John Koster:

Saturday and/or Sunday doorbelling, sign posting, sign waving, and/or phone calling for State Legislature candidates who are also members of the PSCU. Contact these candidates directly through their websites:

- Dennis Richter (1st District) - <http://richter2010.com/index.htm>
- Heidi Munson (1st District) - <http://www.munson2010.com/>
- Mark Issacs (45th District) - <http://votemarkisaacs.com/index.html>
- Art Coday (32nd District) - <http://artcoday.com/>
- Gary Gagliardi (32nd District) - <http://votegaryg.com/>
- Dan Griffey (35th District) - <http://www.griffey4statehouse.com/>
- David Preston (21st District) - <http://www.prestonforsenate.org/>
- Ed Borey (21st District) - <http://www.edborey.com/>
- Elizabeth Scott (21st District) - <http://www.elizabeth4state.com/default.aspx>

(If the campaigns for the candidates above have other weekend events that you need help with, please reply-all to this email to spread the word to all the PSCU members.)

There are less than 3 weeks until ballots are mailed and about 5 weeks until election day. Now is the time to get involved if you haven’t already. Remember ~~the Alamo~~... NO REGRETS!

Sincerely,

Dan Michael, PSCU Organizer, www.meetup.com/pugetsoundconservativeunderground/

P.S.

Need any more convincing to get involved in October?
