

Making of America

Seminar on the U.S. Constitution

October 16, 2010

8:30am-4:30pm

Painesville, Ohio

The following two pages contain an informational flyer about the Making of America Seminar, and a registration form for your use. Please feel free to print and/or forward this material to anyone you think may be interested.

The seminar will explore the history and principles of the constitution as well as the framers' original intent when they wrote this magnificent document.

You will receive a Seminar Guide on "The Making of America" by W.Cleon Skousen (well known historian and the author of "The 5000 Year Leap"). You can also purchase his Textbooks at the seminar.

We would love to have you join us. Please register as soon as possible because seating is limited. To reserve your place, send your completed registration, along with payment by check or money order (Sorry no registrations will be accepted without payment attached.)

Note: If this time and location are not suitable to you, please contact the National Center for Constitutional Studies at <http://nccs.net/> , or for a list of more NCCS seminars, go to <http://nccs.net/seminars/calendar.html>
