

Denver Psychic Development Group plans expansion

Denver-Psychic.com experiences immense growth and expands reach

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sep 1, 2010 – Denver Psychic Development Group announced plans to expand its reach of service and seeks to involve people on a global scale. Denver-Psychic.com is the newly updated website of the Denver Psychic Development Group.

The new website is aimed at allowing the expansion of services to prospective members around the world while continuing to serve the needs of existing clients. With an increased interest all over the world in psychic abilities, DPDG has seen its highest levels of participation from its client base. The next logical step was to plan an expansion of services offered by Denver-Psychic.com.

As the first part of its planned expansion, Denver Psychic Development Group will begin incorporating new members into its weekly meetings via telephone. Members joining via telephone will be able to reap the full benefits of the weekly meetings.

About Denver Psychic Development Group

Denver Psychic Development Group is a group of individuals, organized by Charles Cox, with a common goal of improving the psychic ability of its members. With weekly meetings in the Denver area, and soon to include meetings via telephone, DPDG is focused on discovering the psychic potential in everyone. They can be reached by visiting www.Denver-Psychic.com