Abigail Medina is a Democrat and an elected member of the board of the San Bernardino City Unified School District. A mother with children in public schools, she has been involved for several years advocating for excellent education responsive to the needs of gifted students, English learners, and immigrant and working-class families like her own. She has also advocated for learning environments free of pollution and health risks for children and workers. In earlier work, she sought resources and services for people with disabilities, seniors, veterans, and crime victims. In 2016, she is running to become the Assemblymember for the 40th District. The district encompasses Redlands, Highland, Loma Linda, and Mentone, and large parts of Rancho Cucamonga and San Bernardino. This campaign is winnable for a Democrat. She faces an incumbent Republican with a record of policy decisions out-of-step with women, the environment, and working families in the 40th District. Drawing on her roots in the district, Abigail is building a broad coalition of community support to win and represent in Sacramento the communities she has demonstrated her readiness to serve.
