

MOTION PICTURE SCREENING

You are invited to attend a special private screening of a new motion picture.

"Fugitive Pieces"

"Fugitive Pieces" is a drama that touches both the heart and mind in profound and inspirational ways, and is based on the best-selling acclaimed novel by Anne Michaels.

The story centers on the life and times of Jakob Beer who, as a Jewish boy in Poland, witnesses the massacre of his family during World War II. Through the intervention of a compassionate mentor, he escapes to a Greek island, and then to the safety of Canada. As Jakob grows into manhood, he continues to be haunted by the tragedy of his past, but learns to confront the nature of loss while embracing the healing power of love. Starring Stephen Dillane (The Hours, Spy Game, King Arthur, Goal!).

This invitation will admit you and one guest. There will be no admission charge. You and your guest must be at least 18 years of age and must not be associated with the entertainment industry or the media.

DATE: Monday, June 4, 2007

TIME: 7:30 PM Start Time. Please arrive early as seating is available on a "first come, first served" basis and no one will be admitted once the movie begins. Plan to arrive by 7:00 PM.

PLACE: AMC Loews Village 7 Cinemas
66 Third Avenue (at 11th Street)
New York, NY 10003

RSVP: You must call our office to confirm that you will be attending.

→ → Please call 212-330-8183 ext. 2. ← ←

(You may call between 7 AM and 11 PM, 7 days a week.)

CONDITIONS

OF ADMISSION: No one under 18 years of age will be admitted.
No one involved in the entertainment industry or the media will be admitted.

For security purposes, your ID and bags may be inspected.

No video or audio recording equipment or cameras will be permitted in the theatre.

It is a criminal offense to audio tape or videotape this movie.

Anyone caught doing so will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Thank you. We look forward to seeing you at the screening.