

Help, I need a home. . .

I am a gorgeous little Dachshund named Cynda with a coal black coat and a sweet disposition (a real pushover). My brothers and sisters call me "momma dog". I am 9 years old but not ancient. I weigh a trim 21 lbs. I love being cuddled, kissed, and spoiled in every way. Especially when there are thunder storms (they scare the daylights out of me). Although I am mature, I know all those loveable puppy tricks like when told to sit, stay, lay down, and roll over. I am well fed but only on the best dog food. I eat no table scraps and my current owners had me spayed, micro-chipped, and I'm current with all vaccinations. I am also crate-trained. I have a lovely smile since I just had my teeth cleaned and polished. I have a brother who also needs a home, but I am better looking. How about it? Adopt me! You won't be disappointed.

Why am I up for grabs??? Because my owners are leaving the country due to a job transfer. I will miss them terribly but I know you will help me get over them. Right???

Help, I need a home. . .

I am a handsome little Dachshund named Odie with a tan coat and a lovable personality. I love to play in rock piles. I am 6 years old, but I'm still a puppy at heart. I weigh a sleek 15 lbs. I love to give kisses. My favorite thing is racing around the yard. I am well fed but only on the best dog food. I eat no table scraps and my current owners had me neutered, micro-chipped, and I'm current with all vaccinations. I am also crate-trained. I have a lovely smile since I just had my teeth cleaned and polished. I have a sister who also needs a home, but I am better looking. How about it? Adopt me! You won't be disappointed.
