

Help, I need a home. . .

I am a handsome Standard Dachshund named Rocky with a tan coat and a big white spot on my chest. I have a lovable personality. I love to run and play in the backyard. I am 9 years old, but I'm still a puppy at heart. I weigh a slim 23 lbs. I love to give kisses. My favorite thing is laying in the sun on a warm day. I am well fed but only on the best dog food. I eat no table scraps. I am neutered, micro-chipped, and current with all my vaccinations. I am also crate-trained. I have a lovely smile since I just had my teeth cleaned and polished. How about it? Adopt me! You won't be disappointed.

Why am I up for grabs??? Because my owners are leaving the country due to a job transfer. I will miss them terribly but I know you will help me get over them. Right???
