

HALC proudly presents its First Constitution Day Debate
Wednesday, September 16, 2009, 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm

Scheduled debate panelists are ...

Mr. Guy McLendon, debate participant. (Libertarian Party. Harris County Libertarian Party Chair. Texas Reg. Prof. Engineer, by trade. All around nice guy. Served as TX Representative to the Libertarian Party National Platform Committee in 2006, 2008 and is again serving in 2010. Lobbied Libertarian Party National delegates in 2006 for what was subsequently dubbed the “Portland Purge,” and served on the 2008 subcommittee that drafted a new “Directional Principles” format for the current national platform.)

Mr. Clay S. Conrad, debate participant. (Democratic Party. Mr. Conrad is an appellate law attorney in the Houston area, specializing in jury studies, criminal defense and electronic case presentation. Mr. Conrad is a board member of the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association.)

Mr. Richard Dillon, debate participant. (Republican Party. Graduated from Gulf Coast Bible College with a B.A. Long-time activist and computer engineer by trade most of professional career. Poll watcher and precinct chair for 10 years. Feels his greatest qualification for writing is his desire to share the Republican message, encourage conservatives, see representatives reflecting their values and call them to action. Seeks to motivate folks to hold current elected representatives accountable to “We the People.”)

Mr. Alfred Molison, debate participant. (Green Party. Co-Chair of: Green Party Black Caucus of the United States; Harris County Green Party; and Green Party of Texas. Member of Board of Houston Peace & Justice Center. Corresponding Secretary on Board of Harris Co. Council of Organizations. B.S. degree in Radio, Television and Film, UT-Austin and extensive background in media. Vestry Member at Episcopal Church of the Epiphany. Founding Treasurer for Texans for Gun Safety. Substitute middle and high school teacher with HISD. Service Representative with the SSA.)

Mr. Al Jameson, Master of Ceremonies. (Debate moderator, Persian history expert and all around nice guy. Founder of Infinite Wellness Chiropractic Center, Houston TX and former healthcare lobbyist.)

Join us starting at 6:00 pm for a potluck dinner. Non-alcoholic drinks & desserts available. (RSVP below with item/s you’re bringing.) Suggested love offering for snacks and drinks is available. Seating available for special needs and for those with small children.
