Important dates

26 May
NATIONAL SORRY DAY
This day is about coming together to share the steps towards healing for the Stolen Generations, their families and communities.

27 May to 3 June
NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK
Reconciliation Week is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures and achievements and to explore how each of us can join the national reconciliation effort. The theme for 2014 is Let’s Walk the Talk.

3 June
MABO DAY
The Mabo decision was named after Eddie Mabo, the man who challenged the Australian legal system and fought for recognition of the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples as the traditional owners of their land. The landmark legal decision was made by the High Court on 3 June 1992.

6 to 13 July
NAIDOC WEEK
NAIDOC is a celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and an opportunity to recognise the contributions of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. The 2014 theme is Serving Country-Centenary & Beyond. This year’s NAIDOC theme honours all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men and women who have fought in defence of this country.

All year access

Len Beadell Library
55 John Street, Salisbury

INDIGENOUS NEWSPAPERS
The Len Beadell Library has a range of newspapers available for the community to view all year. These include Koori Mail, Aboriginal Way SA and National Indigenous Times. Call 8406 8283 for more details.

THE TINDALE ABORIGINAL GENEALOGIES COLLECTION
Norman Tindale was an anthropologist based at the SA Museum. He recorded vast amounts of information regarding Aboriginal communities from all over Australia, the majority being collected in the 1920’s and 30’s. Over 50,000 Aboriginal people are included in the genealogies, as well as thousands of named photographic portraits.
For more information contact the Local History Officer on 8406 8207.
On behalf of the City of Salisbury I would like to acknowledge these events are being held on the traditional Country of the Kaurna people of the Adelaide Plains and pay respect to Elders past and present. We recognise and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land. We acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kaurna people living today. It’s with great pleasure that I present this fantastic program of events.
