Investigate 9/11/01

Referendum Vote November 3, 2009

A communiqué for a world-wide 9/11 truth movement from a coalition of leaders & organizations

Dear Fellow Citizens,

Now is a critical moment for truth and peace activists to empower a real investigation into the events of September 11, 2001. Nearly eight years have passed. Over the course of that time, thousands have sacrificed mightily to help shed light on the truth of that tragic day. A shining movement of honest individuals and determined researchers has exposed a government cover-up and questions demanding to be answered, if we aspire to be an open and just society. Now we are approaching a watershed moment in our quest for an authoritative and true investigation into 9/11, which could help end deceitful wars for terror, and ongoing tragedies and betrayal.

In the very city within which this horrible tragedy took place, a campaign for a real investigation is gaining strength. The New York City Coalition for Accountability Now has collected more than 40,000 signatures in May for getting this issue on the ballot for a new investigation in New York City. In order to achieve this goal and to overcome potential obstructions by the NYC Council and others, NYC CAN has set a goal of 75,000 signatures before July.

In order to insure the NYC CAN effort, it is incumbent upon us to help make this happen. The petitioners are out there on the streets of NYC every day and need funds in order to continue. They are well trained; they're professional, gathering between 500-1000 signatures a day, at a cost of about a dollar a signature! We urge you to join the New York City Coalition for Accountability Now, TODAY. RIGHT NOW! If only 2,000 of us each donate the membership amount of $25, NYC CAN will raise enough funds to see through the rest of its petitioning effort and guarantee that the referendum will be on the ballot, November 3, 2009.

And that will most certainly provide the kind of lawful venue and exposure we have been working for. With our help, digging deep and reaching out far and wide, we can make this happen. Freedom is calling for peace and truth to take action. Please join us. NYC CAN!

Sincerely,

Coalition of 9/11 Truth Leaders
