

Religions on TV

According to dick head with camera, Pat Robertson, Haitian people made a pact with devil and now they are suffering from hand of a God.

That it is the most ridiculous statement I heard for a long time.

Last time I heard that kind ridiculous statement was from former president Bush, when he said that God told him to go to war with Iraq.

These kind of idiots with TV camera are the most dangerous as they have opportunity to access wider audience to spread lies for their own agenda and that is fear, hate and violence.

At the end it is all about power and money.

Haitians people are poor and uneducated and that is perfect breeding ground for any form of organize religion.

From voodoo to catholics, christians and who know else, those organize religions are "sucking the life" out those poor people.

Those religions agenda is to scare the shit out of those poor people into submission in order to collect goods in form of food to monetary donation.

The louder the are, the more they collect.

That kind of behavior of organize religions can be observe in every country, but damage the most those poor and uneducated people.

What Robertson try to said is to "give to me and not those devil worshipers".

Greedy mother fuc.er have a lot of money, but he want more.

Look out Robertson, some voodoo master will make a doll with your face and stick a needle in that doll balls.
