New York City New in town Meetup Group

New in Town goes to Taj

The New York City New in town Meetup group is one of the most successful Meetups in New York City. (It is also one of the oldest continually running Meetup groups.) David Greene the current organizer of the group usually hosts parties in Phebe's which is an excellent location for Meetup gatherings on the Bowery. However, for this month's Meetup David Greene will be partnering up with The social Networking Meetup Group (See Below) for a party with hundreds of Meetup partygoers at a club called Taj. Taj was chosen as one of the most beautiful lounges in all of New York by the Zagat Nightlife Survey. About Meetup

Meetup.com helps people find others who share their interest or cause, and form lasting, influential, local community groups that regularly meet face-to-face. We believe that the world will be a better place when everyone has access to a people-powered local Meetup Group. That's our goal.

Meetup Groups help people:

- Find others who share their interests
- Get involved locally
- Learn, teach, and share things
- Make friends and have fun
- Rise up, stand up, unite, and make a difference
- Be a part of something bigger — both locally and globally

We're proud to give more power to the people and we believe it's possible to make a profit and make a difference.

THE NEW YORK CITY SOCIAL NETWORKING MEETUP GROUP

Andy Troy runs a very successful group. Actually, The New York City Social Networking Meetup Group is almost as large as The New York City New in town Meetup Group. This is further emphasizing the large turnout this next event will draw. I almost forgot to mention the Meetup is on for February 16th. I am going to personally try and make it for Happy Hour which is from 6 PM -7:30.

However, the party starts kicking around 7 PM towards the tail end of Happy Hour. If it was not for the fact that I have to be at the airport at 5 am I would definitely be at this party. To learn more about the event and future events surf on over to their website:

NYC Social Events Group

NEW & GAINING MOMENTUM

Newcomer NYC Social Event Group caters to a community of socialites who are interested in discovering events at some of the most wonderful places that New York City has to offer according to their event description. Their first event took place a little over a week ago. Although, the venue chosen was rather small so it was far from wonderful.. Except Veejay the host took care of all his guests with an extended open bar and appetizers. We had our own waitress and she was VERY attentive with the drinks too. The overcrowded venue made up with very good service and everyone at the Meetup was very friendly. I highly recommend the Meetup. I am sure Veejay will be hosting events at larger venues now that he sees a large demand for his Meetups. The next Meetup is in the works and will be posted soon. Please stay tuned to NYC Social Events Group and sign up here: <http://socialnetwork.meetup.com/435/> Please Note a picture on your profile and an Introduction is a requirement to join the group.

THE CARROLL GARDENS MEETUP GROUP

I attended this Meetup group once and would love to go back to another of their events. Since this is The Carroll Gardens Meetup Group I have to venture off into Brooklyn to attend this Meetup Group. The organizer Caterina is very friendly and gracious. However, you may miss her Meetup group unless you ask where the group is hanging out at the venue. Caterina does not offer a number to call or meeting place destination. I only found her group by spotting another Meetup regular in one of the many crowds in a bar. This group has no currently scheduled Meetup events. Hopefully this will all change soon. My best advice is to sign up and attend one of the events and ask a staff member like a bartender where the group is meeting. This is a wonderful Meetup group to join. It is just a little hard to find in a crowded Carroll Gardens bar. You can sign up for Caterina's Meetup here: <http://newintown.meetup.com/592/>
