

D.C.'S CHAMPION OF THE CONSTITUTION

RON PAUL for President

U.S. Congressman Ron Paul (R-TX), despite all odds and despite some rumors otherwise, is still campaigning to become our nation's next President, seeking as many votes and delegates as he can win. Although he's acknowledged that his chances of winning our party's nomination seem futile at this point, he is nevertheless reluctant to disappoint his grassroots supporters who have worked so hard to support him in states that have not yet held their primary elections—and he believes that Republican voters in these states deserve to have a conservative choice on their ballots.

But, more importantly than this, his goals for this campaign have always extended beyond his own election. His candidacy has helped to spark renewed (and much-needed) energy in our party's conservative / libertarian / Goldwater / Reagan base. He's inspired many such folks to seek election for their first time as delegates or even as public servants. And he desires to perpetuate this positive influence upon our party, not only upon its members but also upon its platform. This is why he continues to proclaim a message—one that he acknowledges is not his personal message at all but, rather, a universal "message of human liberty."

We continue to support Dr. Paul's Presidential campaign because we share these goals. And we invite all to join us in doing so, whether with labor or money or both. In fact, please consider donating your tax refund this year to his campaign, as some of us have already pledged to do. Together, we can help hold our party true to its traditional conservative principles!

Ron Paul's Freedom Principles

- ✓ Rights belong to individuals, not groups.
- ✓ Property should be owned by people, not government.
- ✓ All voluntary associations should be permissible—economic and social.
- ✓ The government's monetary role is to maintain the integrity of the monetary unit, not participate in fraud.
- ✓ Government exists to protect liberty, not to redistribute wealth or to grant special privileges.
- ✓ The lives and actions of people are their own responsibility, not the government's.

"Ron Paul personifies the Founding Fathers' ideal of the citizen-statesman. He makes it clear that his principles will never be compromised, and they never are."

"There are few people in public life who, through thick and thin, rain or shine, stick to their principles. Ron Paul is one of those few."

Ron Paul's Congressional Colleagues

Ron Paul's Fiscal Record

- ✓ Repeatedly named the "Taxpayers' Best Friend" in Congress.
- ✓ Never voted to raise taxes.
- ✓ Never voted for an unbalanced budget.
- ✓ Never voted to raise Congressional pay.
- ✓ Never taken a government-paid junket.
- ✓ Never participated in Congress' lucrative pension program.
- ✓ Returns a portion of his Congressional office's annual budget to our U.S. Treasury each year.

"I am running for President to restore the rule of law and to stand up for our divinely inspired Constitution. I have never voted for legislation that is not specifically authorized by the Constitution. As President, I will never sign a piece of legislation, nor use the power of the executive, in a manner inconsistent with the limitations that the Founders envisioned. Many have given up on America as an exemplar for the world, as a model of freedom, self-government, and self-control. I have not. There is hope for America. I ask you to join me, and to be part of it."
