

Dan Druck for Congress

Illinois 14th Congressional District

"In questions of power, then, let no more be heard of confidence in man, but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the Constitution."
- Thomas Jefferson -

Our federal government's intended role - its lawful role - is clearly defined by our Constitution: that ageless, living document created to evolve with the ever-changing times via Article V. Within this framework, our nation became the most prosperous and free nation on earth. But today, a belief has been cultivated that we have government limited only by popular opinion. Gradually, we have allowed our government to ignore its Constitutional constraints. We have allowed our elected officials to take us on an uncharted course to an unknown destination. We have failed to heed Jefferson's wise words and the resulting problems are now becoming apparent.

We must return to the premise that each and every one of us is responsible for ourselves and our families.... not the government... not some social program. For when we as a People are free, we as a nation prosper.

We must resist the temptation to believe that government can provide for us. Government has nothing to give that it doesn't first have to take from its own people. And a government powerful enough to give you everything you need is one powerful enough to take away everything you have.

Won't you join us? Together, we can make a difference. We can return America to peace, liberty, and prosperity for all!

 - Replace the Federal Reserve with a sound monetary system
- ★ Stop illegal immigration
 - Secure our borders
 - Eliminate access to social programs that encourage illegal immigration
- ★ Strengthen our national defense
 - Bring our troops home from Iraq and 100 other countries from around the world
 - Rebuild and modernize our military
 - End the foreign policy of "nation building"
- ★ Take care of our soldiers and veterans
 - Risk soldiers' lives only to defend our nation
 - Dramatically improve health / psychological care and job training programs for veterans
- ★ Reestablish our freedom and privacy
 - Repeal the Patriot Act
