FRED THOMPSON	RUDY GIULIANI	MITT ROMNEY
 FACTS  FAVORS the McCain-Feingold Incumbent Protection Act, which severely limits the abilities of groups like GOA to inform the public about the gun rights voting records of politicians already in office. (42.4 PERCENT) of the 33 firearm-related votes cast by Thompson OPPOSED the Second Amendment.	 FACTS  Supported the Brady Bill and the Clinton semi-auto gun ban. Pushed a proposal to require trigger locks on all firearms.	 FACTS  SUPPORTED five-day waiting period legislation. Continues to openly SUPPORT a Clinton-style semi-auto gun ban.
When he voted anti-gun, it was usually to expand federal authority. This is unfortunately consistent with his being a "law and order conservative"(pardon the pun). — Gun Owners of America	In 1993, before even being sworn in as mayor, Giuliani met with then-President Clinton at the White House to discuss national gun registration. Giuliani supported the Brady bill, which had recently passed, but argued that it didn't go far enough. — Gun Owners of America	"We do have tough gun laws in Massachusetts; I support them, I won't chip away at them; I believe they protect us and provide for our safety." — Mitt Romney
