

Hello, you are welcome!

Suggestion for job hunting to have success in getting a job.

- 1) Study the activity and possible request of the company where you are interested to apply for a job.
- 2) Knowing the activity and the requirement prepare a C/V that is specifically prepared for this application. Do not give the same C/V to every Company.
- 3) Highlight your extra-curriculum activities, particular those that showcase leadership and skills related to the necessity of the Company where you are doing the application.
- 4) Apply for internship and temporary job in your desire profession. Can translate in permanent position when the company is well knowing you capacity and they will offer a good permanent job.
- 5) Lean to network professionally by meeting with relevant contacts, attending on event in line with your job desideration.
- 6) Build up a visible inline presence
- 7) It is better to hired in a job than offers indirect experience than not to be hired at all.
- 8) Consider positions that may not be directly related to your course of study, as long as you can gain relevant skills from them.

I am willing to check you C/V or Resume Free of Charge and provide help.

There is also a company that do checking and provide free assistance in the preparation of a good C/V / Resume
