Christmas Party / JSSC Meeting

We had a fun time at the Combined Sheltie Christmas Party. One order of business was the saying goodbye to a very special lady. Lisa Russell leaving for California Dec 30. We all presented her with a plaque of our appreciation.

The party continued with gift exchanging , a silly game we play every year.

This beautiful centerpiece was donated for our party by Daria Lee Sharmon, Nimitz & Duke, who now live in Texas but were with us in spirit.

Bragging Rights Page      Letters from our Readers (or the dogs!!)

Please send us stories about your sheltie(s) (or even the collie, border collie, newfie or mix you adopted from us) and their accomplishments or just something rather unique or silly that they do. We'd love photos of them as well. You can send the info to either Darla at DDuffey@aol.com or Samantha at Mantha1999@aol.com

Dear Aunt Darla and Uncle Ernie,

I want to send this Christmas Greeting to you and to tell you a little about my life as a Gullone adoptee. I get up in the morning and after my proper good morning hug from my mother and dad, dad and I get into the golf cart and go for my morning ritual, a walk and my personal duties, then we ride around the neighborhood, saying good morning to all the neighbors, my dad that is , you see I am a very loyal son and don't want all that lovie dovie stuff. I love My family and that is enough for me.

We come back home , and have breakfast and then I get brushed and my teeth brushed and then I play with my teddy bear for a couple of minutes and then I crawl behind the drape in the family room for my morning nap. After my nap, we sit and watch the news on TV , oh yes I watch tv , if there is something I like. Like dog shows or something,

After lunch I go again on the golf cart and if I have to take a leak, dad takes me to the compound, otherwise we ride and see all the Christmas lights, My only problem is we have to pass by this stupid little yorkie, that lunges at me and mom tells me to not pay any attention to such an animal, We have good neighbors that try and be friends and maybe someday I will try, for now I am very happy in my own world.

Enough about me . Tell all my friends hello and thank you again for finding me a wonerful home and parents that love me.."just as I am" and want me with them for ever.

Love
Keegan Gullone aka "Tinker Bell"

From Randi Cohen about her sweetheart "Nike".

Just to let you know I took Nike to Ocala this weekend and she was entered in Wild Card Novice. That is a non - regular class with no title. I wanted to get a feel for how she would do outdoors and she was awesome. She won the class both days and I had them score her w/o eliminating an exercise. She got a 192 1/2 on Saturday and a 193 on Sunday with 2 points off for barking!!!! We'll be working on our control so maybe I can keep her a bit calmer. Randi

Congratulations Randi and Nike !!!!!

Here are a few pictures of Nike running her heart out. That's probably her favorite thing to do. The latest on her update is that she is now "TLC's Just Do It" BN CA. She is currently training for Novice/Open Obedience. I'm hoping she will be ready for Novice at our Nationals. She is really doing well in her training and loves to work. Her energy is unbounding, but she really wants to please. I love my crazy girl with all my heart, and I think how lucky I am to have found her. Thank you again a million times for keeping her just home.

Nov. 20, 2011

Hi!

Nonie and I took a trip out to the West Coast. Left home on Sept 29 and got back Nov. 4th. Wheew, over 5 1/2 wks. We saw lots of friends & family. Piper went with us. Talk about a good traveler! She slept all the way in the car. Behaved herself in the Motels and made friends with all kids, adults and dogs that she met in their homes. We were so proud of her!

*Have a wonderful Thanksgiving
Laggy*

He is my other eyes that can see above the clouds; my other ears that hear above the winds. He is the part of me that can reach out into the sea. He has told me a thousand times over that I am his reason for being; by the way he rests against my leg; by the way he thumps his tail at my smallest smile; by the way he shows his hurt when I leave without taking him. (I think it makes him sick with worry when he is not along to care for me.) When I am wrong, he is delighted to forgive. When I am angry, he clowns to make me smile. When I am happy, he is joy unbounded. When I am a fool, he ignores it. When I succeed, he brags. Without him, I am only another man. With him, I am all-powerful. He is loyalty itself. He has taught me the meaning of devotion. With him, I know a secret comfort and a private peace. He has brought me understanding where before I was ignorant. His head on my knee can heal my human hurts. His presence by my side is protection against my fears of dark and unknown things He has promised to wait for me... whenever... wherever - in case I need him. And I expect I will - as I always have. He is just my dog."
