- US Federal Government is charged with various Constitutional Violations via First Amendment Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances.
- US Supreme Court Ignores Petition for Redress, thus again VIOLATES the US Constitution!
- Our Founding Fathers made provision for the legal right of We the People to withhold ALL taxes until said grievances are redressed.

Do we lose freedom of religion, speech & press next?
Has America already fallen to enemies domestic?
Is it even lawful for Americans to continue funding an unlimited & unconstitutional government?

We the People of America STRIKE from

On February 25, 2008, the Supreme Court of the United States, without comment, refused again to hear We The People vs. United States. Thus, the Court failed its Constitutional duty, yet again, to declare the meaning of the last ten words of the First Amendment.

The Court elected not to be put into the position of having to declare the unalienable Right of the People to hold the Government accountable to the Constitution's essential principles, enumerated powers and explicit prohibitions.

Instead, the Court has chosen to conspire with the political branches in a collective decision to protect, preserve and enhance the treasonous notion that constitutional violations are mere issues of current public policy, subject only to the will of the majority of people voting in precincts and the halls of Congress.

The founding fathers knew that it was possible for the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches of government to someday begin to fail in their duty to protect the people from tyranny.

They also knew that unless the Right to Petition included the right to withhold their money from the government UNTIL their grievances were redressed, their grievances might fall on deaf ears and liberty would give way to tyranny and involuntary servitude.

The founding fathers, in an act of the Continental Congress in 1774, said regarding Petitioning for Redress of Grievances:

“If money is wanted by Rulers who have in any manner oppressed the People, [the People] may retain [their money] until their grievances are redressed, and thus peaceably procure relief, without trusting to despised petitions or disturbing the public tranquility.”

Founders' Advice: No Redress, NO TAXES!
