

Memphis Atheists

September 2, 2009

Atheism and Art

Quote of the Day read by Claire.

Our Special Guest today is Spring, a local Humanist artist and author.

Upcoming Events!

Rocky Horror Picture Show! This Friday, Sept. 4 at the Orpheum. Costume contest at 6:45. Show starts at 7:15. $6 cash only.

Book Club – Sept 9. Due to space limitations, only 10 can RSVP. There are still a couple of spots open. The book is The Unlikely Disciple by Kevin Roose. See the Meetup Calendar for details.

Happy Hour this month will be at Carrabba's on Poplar near Clark Tower on Thursday, Sept 17. Drop by anytime between 5:30 PM and 8:30 PM! We'll be in the bar area.

Upcoming Meetups!

October 7 – The hosts of the popular science podcast The Skeptic's Guide to the Universe will join us remotely.

November 4 – A DJ from WEVL, Memphis's volunteer radio station, will join us to talk about what that's all about.

More Stuff on Back...

News and Announcements

Organizers for 2009-2010 – Thanks to everyone for considering being an organizer. The organizers for the coming year are Clint, Kelly, Keven P., Kimmy, Leslie and Aaron. Thanks to John, Melissa and Trevor for their help as organizers in 2008-2009. New organizers will be selected next September.

Game Night? If you're interested in a game night, either cards or board games, please contact Kevin Zemko or one of the organizers so we can decide on a good day. This should be fun!

Meet an Atheist: Kelly

What attracted you to Memphis Atheists?

“As everyone knows, Memphis can make non-believers feel isolated. I had a growing need to meet others with similar views and thoughts about religion. As a native Memphian, I thought it might be difficult to find a group like Memphis Atheists, but was pleasantly surprised! MA has not only given me an outlet from the "accepted" religiousness of the south., but has opened doors to new friends with similar interests. I could say that MA has been a godsend for me, but ...”

Kelly has been a member since September 2007. She has volunteered as an organizer for most of that time. Thanks Kelly!