Subject: Please vote for Moonshi on www.MBACHallenge.tv and WIN a Blackberry Bold

Dear members & friends of Entrepreneur R Us,

I am participating in Asia's 1st online reality TV show, MBA Challenge (www.mbachallenge.tv). I was told the reality show is a mix of "The Apprentice + American Idol" and if I win, I get a MBA sponsored by Kaplan University! However, to participate in the online reality show, I need as many supporting votes as possible so that I can go to the next round. Currently, I am in shortage of 100 votes.

Filming will start next week, Tuesday 9-June for 8 consecutive weeks (8am to 9pm). Every week, I will need to win the weekly challenge and also get supporting votes to stay for the next round. The filming will be uploaded to the www.mbachallenge.tv website every weekend after editing by the producer for you to view the weekly episodes.

Please spare 2-mins of your time to vote for me and if your vote is the lucky vote, and I get through to the next week, both of us will get a Blackberry Bold!

Don't wait, vote for me now!

How to vote? Follow the steps below:

1. Go to www.mbachallenge.tv website.
2. Click on my face in the square frames.
3. Enter your email address (do it twice if you have two email ids!)
4. Access your mailbox (email), and look for the mail from MBA Challenge. It could be in your "Junk" mail folder.
5. Open email from MBA challenge and click on website url.
6. Voila - you're done :)
7. Now, get your family members and friends to vote for me too!

1.

Thank you for your votes!

With gratitude,
