Key C

King Kamehameha, the conqueror of the islands

Became a famous hero one day

He fought a native army
And pushed it over the pali

And crowned himself king of Hawaii nei

When the fray was over he took the islands over
And this is what he had to say:

Ua mau ke ea o ka aina i ka pono
The Life of the Land is Perpetuated in Righteousness

Auwe kealoha e"

And on his throne he sat alone
Waiting for a big luau
Royal maidens fair
We're gathered there

To greet him with a grand welakahao
